President James D. Hoskins
University of Tennessee
Knoxville, Tennessee

My dear Hoskins:

Knowing you are desperately busy at this time, I have hesitated to write to you. I hope the fire in Carrick did not cripple your work very seriously. I would be glad to hear how things are.

Because I knew how busy you and Professor Hess were I have been writing to Miss Baker for a little information about things in the early days. If she cannot give it to me, will you not please help her, or tell her where to find it.

Please give my love to Mrs. Hoskins and tell her I always recall her sweet hospitality with great pleasure and gratitude.

We have two boys in the service - one an Ensign in the Navy, is I think, in the South Pacific - probably Solomons somewhere. The other one is in Coast Artillery and will get in it when we invade Europe!

My children are well and I am working every day.

Affectionately yours,

Charles Wm Dabney
